

We Invite You to Become a Sponsor of our Classroom Intensive Training Workshops.

If you are open to sponsoring any of our intensive training workshops, please provide your name, contact information, email address or phone number.

Please indicate which of our Classroom Intensive Training Workshops you would like to sponsor.

If you're a business wishing to become a sponsor, provide us with your company logo and we will promote your sponsorship on our website and provide your company with a web-streaming video featuring your company's goods and services.

Here is our list of Classroom Intensive Training Workshops:

INTRODUCTION TO FILMMAKING - $1,500.00. A 3-day introduction workshop unpacking the foundation of filmmaking based on writing a good script and editing.

INTERMEDIATE MASTERS - $1,500.00. A 3-day workshop where the principles of casting, directing and various aspects of camera technique are applied in the principle of designing and entering into pre-production before filming can begin.

ADVANCED DRAMATIC FILM PRODUCTION - $2,000.00. A 4-day workshop where participants will actually make their own short film production based on the previously learned skills presented in both the Introduction and Intermediate Classroom Workshops. Upon completion, students will gain an understanding of what it means to actually make a film, and will have the completed production for their portfolios on DVD.

Participants in our Classroom Intensive Training Workshops will be eligible for scouting and talent consultation evaluations for possible future employment and internships in our film production network.
